

Thief Description

The thief is the most hated character type within society. They cause innumerable losses of money and valuables per year. But they thrive on this, and it drives them on to taking chances that a group of well armed Warriors would not think of. Being masters of disguise, and very slippery, has kept their hidden clan from becoming extinct. Thieves will build a guild in any climate or setting.