Description:

Annihilation Strike?: Yes

Description: The proud and majestic Giant Eagle stands 9' tall and has a 27' wing-span. Its sharp features give it a regal heir, striking in its image and proud and stern countenance. Unlike their common relatives, the eagle, the Giant Eagles have great intelligence and wisdom (greater than most of all mankind).

Dislikes: Changes in their habitat. Their way of life is cherished by the Giant Eagle. They also despise dragons and griffins.

Disposition: Detached and illusive. It will shy away from all but its own.

Fears: Unknown.

Habitat: Mountains.

Immunities: Fear spells and abilities. 25% magic, mental and spiritual resistant.

Life-span: 1 age (1,000 years).

Likes: Cattle, sheep, deer, elk, moose and sometimes the bear. They are great fishers as well. Honor: The entire species of Giant Eagle hold fast to honor-pacts, or in the repaying of a debt. Don't mistake this for their solitary nature though. Giant Eagles do not like outsiders.

Needs: Unknown

Note: Giant Eagles make their nests in the top-most areas of mountain cliffs to ensure the safety of their nests. They lay from 2-9 (roll 1-D8+1) eggs every 10 decade. If a nest is found in the springtime there will be a 25% chance that eggs or young will be found within it (01-49: eggs, 50-98: young, 99-00: presently hatching). If any creature is caught approaching the nest, an attack will commence (unless that creature is known and is on excellent terms with the kingdom of the Giant Eagle).

Special Abilities: Keen vision (at an elevation of one league the Eagle can spot a rabbit below if it successfully avoids vs. "Awareness". This breed of raptor understands and speaks the following languages: Elven (Aldarian and Vosk), Human and Shallant.

Special defenses: Fear-resistance: 75% (26+ roll = no fear felt). Blunt-resistance: 50%. Feather Cloak: The Giant Eagle will extend its wings and dilate its feathers when engaging in grounded combat. This may fool the attacker, causing it to misjudge offensive placed attacks. Each strike must be accompanied with a successful avoidance-roll vs. “Awareness” or fail to physically damage the Giant Eagle (sudden-death and annihilation-strikes are excluded from this ruling).

Special offenses: None

Susceptibilities: Unknown.

Weapon susceptibility: Rank-0 (or better) weapon to harm.
