

War Plans:

You find a document that disturbs you greatly. As you read it, you realize these are orders to launch a full scale invasion -- one nation against another. According to the information in these War Plans, an entire nation is to launch an assault against another nation in 3-D6 days. All events which occur after finding this document will be strictly up to the dictates of the Game Master.

To discover what race is to make war upon another race, roll up two random races by using the chart, "Races, Random determination of:" in the R Section of the Basic Rules Book.
