

Chagrith

The following is the information concerning this organic plant:

Appearance

Oval leaves, the size of two forefingers. The tree itself is dark-brown, very rough bark. The Chagrith The tree branches grow out without smaller offshoots of smaller branches. Each leaf sprouts from an arm-thick branch, scattered about the surface of the tree. At “Maturity” this tree can reach 15'.

% chance to locate per 24 hours: 40%

of checks per 24 hours: 2

Classification: Tree.

Color: Green.

Location: Surface.

Maturity: 1 year.

Regional habitation: Forests.

Smell: Bittler.

Uses found: approximately 5,000 leaves in the spring, summer and fall. In the winter there will be no useful leaves.

Value per use: 3 electrum

Taste: Bitter.

Texture: Smooth.

Explanation

The Chagrith Tree produces leaves that combat infection. The leaves of the Chagrith Tree can be used on the same creature but one time per 30 days and will reduce infections in the body causes by unclean wounds, scraps, burns, etc., 10-100% (roll 1 D-10 x10).

Area of influence: Consumer.

Damage: None.

Duration of effects: 3-D6 hours.

Effect time: 3-D6 hours.

Effects: This leave will

Healing:	Fresh leaves:	Infection will be reduced by 10-100% (roll 10 D-10).
	Dried leaves:	These leaves cannot be dried and still keep their potency. If dried and used infection will be reduced by 5-20% (roll 5 D-4).

Immunities: None.

Maximum adjustments: Not applicable.

Overdose symptoms: Mile fever will last for 3-D6 hours, in which time there will be a penalty of -5 on defense, offense and all avoidance-rolls. The consumer will contract a slight fever, even with a normal dose, but not enough to give any penalties, or be concerned with.

Range of influence: Consumer.

Resting time: None.

Side effects: Slight fever will occur.

Used for: Curing infection.

Preparation

The leaves of this tree are bitter, but edible. To remove the bitter taste, simply drop ten leaves into a cup of hot water and wait 5 minutes. When this is done, the bitter taste will diminish, but only about 25%.

Avoidance-roll: None.

Measurement per use: 10 mature leaves should be used for a normal sized Human.