

Crystal Ball, Spellmaster's:

This crystal ball will be enchanted with 1-D4 +1 random spells. When holding this item, you can cast these spells as normal, as if you had learned them from scrolls. But if you put it away, you will no longer know the spells.

Note: This item is considered as a one-handed weapon, in that you must have one hand free to hold it. You can wield the Spellmaster's Crystal Ball, as well as another one-handed weapon (Dagger, Fist, Long Sword, Short Sword). You may also hold a shield in the other hand while holding this item.
