Explanation: This stone has the most desirable effect:

(1) If this stone is on the character's body, or in a pack, bag, etc. will cause an annihilation strike (triple zero attack roll upon the holder) to become a mere sudden death (99-00 attack roll).

(2) If a sudden death is rolled against the holder of this stone, it will minimize the attack to a Maximum Strike (holder of stone will then be able to attempt to defend against the strike as if it were not a sudden death).

Once a Fortune Stone has thwarted a death strike against it's holder it will then disappear.
