Description:

Annihilation Strike?: Yes

Description: The Phoenix stands 9' tall, 18' long and has a wing span of 27'. It's feathers appear as flames of yellow-red.

Dislikes: Water.

Disposition: The phoenix is a fierce predator, yet a true ally to those who can be lucky enough to befriend one. These noble enchanted creatures will risk life and limb for only the truest of allies.

Fears: Water. See: "Susceptibilities".

Habitat: Volcanic.

Immunities: Disease, Fire, Pain, Poison, Shock, Sickness and Stun.

Life-span: 500 years / Immortal. If the Phoenix dies of natural causes, it will rise from the ruin of its own ashes once again to live on.

Likes: Unknown

Needs: Unknown

Note: The Phoenix lives its life basking in the lava pools within a volcanic region. It is very aggressive, yet very intelligent as well. If encountered during mid-summer, there will be a 10% chance (91+ roll) that, if the encountered Phoenix is female, it will have 1-D4 eggs.

Special Abilities: None.

Special defenses: Fear: 80% (21+ roll = no fear felt). Blunt weapon attacks: 87% (this includes blunt weapon damage resistance against strikes for having a high strength).

Special offenses: Flame-strike: # of attacks: 1 per 2 turns / Damage: 1-D6 x the level of the Phoenix. Range / Area of affect: 4 spaces (20') out all the way around the phoenix.

Susceptibilities: Water. If a Phoenix is soaked, its flame will douse and it will lose its ability to fly. The Phoenix will only swim within lava. In water, the phoenix will sustain 3-D10 points of damage per turn in all areas of its body if exposed to water.

Weapon susceptibility: Rank-1 (or better) enchanted weapon to harm.
