

Uvoli

The following is the information concerning this organic plant:

Appearance

Uvoli are a system of intertwining branches and roots that grow as normal tree. the difference is that half of the root system of the Uvoli tree is visible above the ground. 1 mature Uvoli Tree will yield approximately enough lumber to create 1 large storage shed of a sturdy nature.

% chance to locate per 24 hours: 5%

of checks per 24 hours: 1

Classification: Tree.

Color: Blood-red.

Location: Surface.

Maturity: 30 years.

Regional habitation: Underworld.

Smell: Wood.

Uses found: Uvoli spawn in great forests (usually about 25,000 trees on the average, yet more vast forest ranges have been commonly found (some of the trees have been known to yield timber, the width of 20' and a length of 30' (which is quite extraordinary).

Value per use: 1 mature Uvoli Tree: 30 white-gold.

Taste: Wood.

Texture: Course, like that of an oak tree.

Explanation

This tree is the most common of tree within the Underworld. The sight is strange and eerie. Many life forms take refuge within these natural shelters, taking security within its protective sheltering.

Area of influence: None.

Damage: If Uvoli is eaten, it will take 10 times longer to digest than normal food.

Duration of effects: None.

Effect time: None.

Effects: None.

Healing: None.

Immunities: None.

Maximum adjustments:

Overdose symptoms: None. Uvoli is wood-like and is not harmful to eat (just the same as the wood of a tree on the earthen plane).

Range of influence: None.

Resting time: None.

Side effects: None.

Used for: Building, as lumber is used to build.

Preparation

Cut down Uvoli Tree and let dry for approximately 90 days. If this is not done, it will warp. By letting it dry, it will warp, but can then be cut without further warping. Once dried and cut, materials will then be ready for building structures.

Avoidance-roll: None.

Measurement per use: 1 fully mature tree.