

Silent Character:

A Silent Character is a character that is played by the G.M. If a Silent Character is played, it is usually done to even up a company that is playing; the present company might be too small, and another character needed.

Sometimes a character will seek out another character to guard him or her on a quest. The G.M. will play all Silent Characters, helping out the players, and evening up the chances for success.