

Sywan Toadstool

The following is the information concerning this organic plant:

Appearance

This little mushroom is about 1" tall and is all one piece. Many mushrooms have a cap, but this one grows all as one piece; much larger at the top (which is bulbous and unevenly shaped).

% chance to locate per 24 hours: 5%

of checks per 24 hours: 1

Classification: Fungi.

Color: Black.

Location: Surface.

Maturity: 3 days.

Regional habitation: Desert (Savanna).

Smell: Mildew.

Uses found: 1

Value per use: 5 white-gold.

Taste: Old potatoes.

Texture: Sponge-like and watery.

Explanation

The Sywan Toadstool only grows near a water source, or after a rain storm. Its life span is short. After maturing each will live for only 1-D4+1 days, and will keep indefinitely if dried properly and stored in an air-tight container.

Area of influence: Consumer.

Damage: None.

Duration of effects: 4-D20 hours.

Effect time: 6-8 hours.

Effects: Fungi, once digested into a creature's system, will cause dehydration to cease for 4-D20 hours. During this time the consumer will need only 10-40% of the normal amount of water.

Healing: None.

Immunities: None.

Maximum adjustments:

Overdose symptoms: None. If more than one fungi is eaten, it will be wasted.

Range of influence: Consumer.

Resting time: None.

Side effects: None.

Used for: Dehydration. Sywan Toadstool will minimize the body's water loss.

Preparation

Eat one Sywan Toadstool raw.

Avoidance-roll: None.

Measurement per use: 1 fungi.